

Experienced health care providers are welcome to share their expertise with their counterparts in poor countries. We set up a lecture and teaching schedule, including hands-on demonstrations in university affiliated hospitals, in cooperation with Cambodian universities.

MC provides a package that includes accommodation, transportation and logistic support including medical English translators. If desired we design a highly individualized cultural/tour itinerary.